

NAVY FEDERAL CREDIT UNION AWARD OF EXCELLENCE 2020

The Navy Federal Credit Union will annually present to a Thoreau student the Award for Excellence for outstanding service to school and community.

The Award of Excellence will be presented to a student who exemplifies the qualities of service and volunteerism within the school or community. In order to qualify for the award, a student must submit an application. The applications will be reviewed by a panel of representatives from Thoreau and Navy Federal Credit Union.

DIRECTIONS TO APPLICANTS: At the link below, please fill in information that indicates how you have demonstrated service or volunteerism to your school and/or community during the past year. In each category, examples of how early adolescents can demonstrate service or volunteerism are provided. Fill in as much information in each category as possible but know that it is perfectly acceptable to leave a category blank if it does not apply to you.
